

I would like to make people enthusiastic for nature. I want to show them the added value of conserving the nature they are living close to. I believe that, together with local communities, we can make a difference.

Elise Bakker

Board Member Leo Foundation